HARBOR SPRINGS, MICHIGAN

Harbor Springs High School

Dedication

ROY B. CLOUD

This year book is dedicated to Roy B. Cloud in deepest appreciation for the years of inspiration and service which he so willingly gave.

ANNUAL STAFF

Clockwise Sitting: Rhoda Lightfoot, Barbara Godbold, Mary Prusak, Donna Sterly, Lorraine Rosebohm, Opal Burdick, Rosamund Goodrich, Amie Larsen, Sandra Wilson, Shirley Smith, Jim Wightman.

Standing: Richard Friend, Jerry Tippett, Albert Chingwa, Gary Hahn.

The Student Council of Harbor High School tried out a new idea. They took over the annual under the guidance of Mr. Rinehart. Chosen from the student body to publish the annual were: Opal Burdick, Editor-in-Chief; Shirley Smith, Assistant Editor; Jerry Tippett, Business Manager; Donna Seeley, Art Editor; Rhinard Troup, Photography; Rosamund Goodrich, Copy Editor; Amie Larsen, Circulation Manager; Barbara Godbold, Advertising Manager; Rhoda Lightfoot, Society Editor; Albert Chingwa, Sports Editor; Gary Hahn, Organizations Editor; Richard Friend and Sandra Wilson, Assistant Circulation Managers; Lorraine Rosebohm, Donna Sterly and Mary Prusak, typists.

After many meetings, much discussion and worry, the annuals were finally received and distributed, much to the relief of the staff and Mr. Rinehart.

This year the student council has again served the student body well. Some of the organization's activities and services are: supervising the skating rink, handling class elections, sponsoring the school annual and a schoolwide magazine sales campaign. They also had a paper and scrap-metal drive.

The officers were: Gary Hahn, President; Frank Granstra, Vice-President; Amie Larsen, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Rinehart was our advisor. Each class president and a class representative from the seventh grade through the twelfth grade made up our student government.

THE SENIOR CLASS

As the twelfth grade is as high as one can go in high school, it was no wonder that this year's seniors skimmed through it in an airplane.

Pilot Rhinard Troup was president; co-pilot was Jerry Tippett. Joyce Sanderson kept a trip diary for the class as she was secretary while Jane Irish acted as treasurer. Mrs. Irish and Mr. Sonnevil were navigators, who did a fine job of sponsoring. Student council representative Gary Hahn was our public relations officer.

September 9, a Harvest Supper was an event worth landing for, especially since the twelfth graders supplied the food. The Senior girls are admirable cooks.

Several side trips were taken during the year, exploring the fields of Chemistry, Speech and Sociology.

On November 3, the Seniors sponsored their carnival and with it a new innovation—a Square Dance Contest. Every Class in high school was represented by a set. The dancers were dressed in long calicos and levis and the Contest was as pretty to watch as it was difficult to judge.

During the winter, a big blizzard put a lot of ice on the wings of the sky clipper, when the Seniors had a baked goods sale but they soon thawed out as the twelfth graders planned their "Cupid's Capers Dance." On the eve of February 9, the students parachuted out over the high school gym to dance.

On March 28, after weeks of rehearsal, the Senior play, "Room for One More" was given. Even when one of the cast became ill and was unable to go on, the actors finished up in grand style.

The destination of the Senior trip was Niagara Falls.

On June 5, the class of '52 bid a very wistful adieu to a wonderful school and an outstanding faculty.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Juniors traveled by boat this year, after having worked up from their Freshman mules and their Sophomore bus.

At the helm stood class president, Frank Granstra. Beside him was Vice-President, Leo Smith, as first - mate. Secretary Shirley Smith kept the log for the voyage while purser, Eddie Stolt, acted as Treasurer. Chief Stewardess Amie Larsen was to be found running among the passengers, getting suggestions to take to Student Council meeting.

The Junior Sadie Hawkins Dance was a great success, probably because they had so many seamen to swab decks and perform all the other menial tasks necessary. During the festivities, their sponsors, Mr. Baker and Miss Corey, stood watch on the poop deck.

To take on a few provisions, the Juniors dropped anchor for awhile. During this time, they made a stowaway pay for her keep by giving a show called "Here Comes Charlie." This Junior play was highly enjoyable. The sight of Captain Granstra in a beard was well worth the money we paid for tickets.

Last year, it was voted by the students to combine the J-Hop and the Junior-Senior Banquet. After polishing and decorating, the boys donned their dress blues and escorted the "girls from every port."

Naturally, while the Junior year has been a very rewarding one, the eleventh grade will be glad to ride in style during their Senior year in a sky clipper.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

As the bus left on the journey of the school term of 1951-1952, the sophomore passengers filled fifty-four seats. Miss Carpenter and Mr. Beer held prominent places at the head of the group as their sponsors. Across the aisle sat class president Victor Kishigo, and beside him was the vice-president, Charles Taylor. These boys held the same offices last year. Behind Vic and Charles were Betty Kaniarz, secretary-treasurer, and Marcia Baldwin, student council representative.

The first stop was at the City Grocery where this class held a highly successful baked goods sale.

After a few weeks of educational traveling, the sophomores once more alighted to sell at the East Jordan game, played in the Harbor Stadium. Neither the teams nor the selling committee will ever forget the deep November snow fall!

On October 20, the sophomores sponsored a Harvest Dance at the school.

A few more baked goods sales preceded the Boyne City basketball game at which sophomores began a new project. They raffled off a cake between halves!

The locomotion for the mid-winter sleigh ride was supplied by the teams of Mr. Perry and Mr. Gregory. Afterward, hot refreshments thawed out the students at school.

June 7, the Sophomores left their bus and looked forward to another successful year on the Junior Boat trip.

FRESHMAN CLASS

"Mule Train" might have been the theme song of the Freshmen as they commenced on the rocky path of their first year of high school.

At the head of the train was the president, Tom Clarke, astride a palomino mule. His pardner was Patsy Heynig, vice - president, on a small grey beast. Sarah King, secretary, and Kathleen Johnston, treasurer, made a sweet picture on their black and white "long ears." Gary Swiss, student council representative, drove the covered wagon that contained the Freshman sponsors, Mr. Price and Mr. Hofmeyer.

When November 3 rolled around, the frosh high-tailed it to the Senior Carnival where they entered the big Square Dance Contest. Their trip must have put them into top condition for they won the contest, fair and square.

In December, the frosh decided to straighten their bow-legs with a Christmas Dance. It was quite a success, especially as mistle-toe was suspended from a streamer in the middle of the gym!

The silver dollars that were made on the baked goods sales and athletic events weighed down the mules. The Freshmen will have to give them up to board the Sophomore bus next year, when we are sure that they will be as successful as their predecessors.

BAND

Middle Row: Harriet Kishigo, Grace Halter, Rae Jean Cetas, Raymond Scibior, Gary Hahn, David Irish, Jane Irish, Tom Clark, Raye Kleinhenz, Ann Irish.

Thanks to the able direction of the new music teacher, Joseph Jezisek, and the keen interest of the members, the performances of the high school band were admirable entertainment this year.

The band's first appearance was at the dedication of the football stadium. On December 13, there was a Christmas Concert in which the chorus shared honors. The Winter Band Festival was held in Traverse City on February 23. The band members were justly proud of the good rating they earned. The Spring Festival, in Cheboygan, on May 7, was also a grand success. After this event, the towns people were treated to a concert. The band's lighter activities consisted of a number of performances at the football games and pep meetings.

CHORUS

Under the direction of Mr. Jezisek, and set off by their new royal blue robes, the chorus presented several programs during the past year. In addition to their taking part in the annual choral festival, held at Petoskey on March 29, they presented a Christmas program for the P. T. A. on December 13: On March 12, they sang for the local Kiwanis Club. On May 16, they presented the operetta, "She's One of the Boys." Those in the cast were: Henry Curtis, Gary Hahn; Jim Hayes, David Irish; Granger Meade, Richard Wagenschutz; Albert Ashe, Eddie Stolt; Briggs, Jerry Tippett; Cora Kane, Amie Larsen; Phyllis, Betty Kaniarz; Nancy, Shirley Smith; Jean, Opal Burdick; Lydia Richards, Barbara Godbold; Henrietta Curtis, Evelyn Pawlus; Rose, Carol Kaniarz.

On May 10, the chorus attended the state festival in Mt. Pleasant, after being recommended for state at the Petoskey festival.

This year a noon hour group was set up for the students who wished to take part in the chorus activities but were unable to attend the regular practice session held fourth hour.

FRENCH CLUB

Bonjour! Are you ready to go youth hostling with the oldest club in school? Our guide is Mr. Ruonavaara. Let's share our loads by riding bicycles built for two, shall we? All right, start lining up! Pushing the weight of the first bike is Frank Granstra, our president. Riding on the same bike is Judy Juilleret, vice-president, telling Frank where to go. The front seat of the next bike is occupied by Ann Irish, our treasurer. Lee Kleinhenz, secretary, rides behind Ann with a pencil and pad taking down all French words.

We are told of many sides of France by our guest speakers. Leaving the Boy Scouts in Paris, we are taken to the rolling countryside to see the vineyards. We sit in the well-known cafes and listen to famous French Chansons. We visit the opera houses and universities. Then, we wave goodbye to France, singing and speaking as much French as possible, n'est-ce pas?

SENIOR PLAY

Standing: Joyous Terrian, Mr. Price, Rhinard Troup, Gary Hahn, Rosamund Goodrich.
Seated: Eugene Kruskie, Barbara Godbold, Lorraine Rosebohm, Jane Irish.

On Friday, the 28th of March, the curtain went up on the first act of the Senior Play, "Room For One More." It was a two act play by Anna Perrott Rose Wright. Rosamund Goodrich was Mrs. Rose, the mother of Trot and Teensie, played by Jane Irish and Joyce Sanderson. Mother and Rhinard Troup as poppy always felt they had room for another child, which they proved by adopting Gary Hahn as Joey, who aspired to be a doctor, Donna Seeley, who was Janey, the girl that saved Lorraine Rosebohm from drowning, and Jimmy John, the little lame boy. Mrs. Biddle, Patsy Hartung, and her two children, George and Betty, portrayed by Eugene Kruskie and Barbara Godbold were visitors in the Rose house nearly as often as the cranky, old, social worker from the orphanage, Joyous Terrian as Miss Winston.

Mr. Price directed the play. Mrs. Beauvais and the Senior sponsors, Mrs. Irish and Mr. Sonnevil, worked with the stage crew to a very attractive out-come.

All considered, the play was a great success and everyone enjoyed it immensely.

THE JUNIOR PLAY

STANDING: Gloria Terpenning, Dick Williams, Harriet Kishigo, Diane Sutherland.

The Junior production of "Here Comes Charlie" by Joy Tolrcris was as amusing as it was well done. Mr. Price directed the cast, which included Ann Irish, Frank Granstra, Eddie Stolt, Harriet Kishigo, Dick Williams, Gloria Terpening, Al Chingwa, Isabelle Jablinskey, Diane Sutherland and Vincent Keway.

When Charlie Hopps, the new ward of young Larry Elliott, turned out, on arrival, to be a girl-in fact, a true daughter of the Ozarks—things really popped! After fainting, Larry's Aunt Fanny, and his fiancee, Vivian, tried their best to get rid of the delightfully primitive young lady. They did succeed in making her bearded old Uncle Aleck into a butler—of sorts! Finally, however, the opposition overcame Charlie's hillbilly spirit and she left in tears, heart breakingly declaring that she would become a lady with the money Uncle Aleck, who was not so dumb after all, made on the stock market. During his absence, Larry realized how much he loved her, as did nearly every male member of the Cast. After a year had passed, Charlie and Uncle Aleck returned for a dinner date, completely resplendent in their finery. Everything ended well, when Charlie decided to marry "Poppa" Larry and they lived happily ever after.

DRILL CORPS

Coach Phil Kullman began his second year with Bill Aldridge of Central Michigan as his assistant. First foes of the season in the new stadium were the Cheboygan Chiefs, a class "B" school. Rams held them for three quarters, but their lack of depth began to show in the final stanza, with Cheboygan winning, 33 to 6.

Next week the Rams surprised a well-balanced Gaylord team with a 26 to 0 defeat. A week later, on their home field, the Rams managed a 7 - 7 tie with a strong Mancelona eleven.

The outweighed Rams took on Pellston and gained a vengeful 6 - 0 victory. Ray Swiss scored the touchdown. But the following week, Charlevoix found a weakness in the line and pushed through an 18 - 0 defeat for the Harbor team. A little subdued, the Rams took on Onaway the following week and gained an impressive 25 - 0 victory.

Next game of the season saw Boyne City run 18 - 0 over Harbor Springs. Final blow came in a snowstorm as East Jordan, Conference Champs, whipped the Rams 26 to 0. Graduating this year are backfield men: Ray Swiss, Eugene Kruskie, and Gary Hahn.

BASKETBALL

STANDING: Vincent Keway, Stanley Pifer, Mike DeWitt, Dick Williams, Frank Granstra, Albert Chingwa, Asst. Coach Bill Aldridge, Coach Phil Kullman.

The Rams began the season with an unexpected win over Mancelona, 45 to 43. But this flashy start did not ear mark the rest of the Ram games for the first was the only game they won.

However, the Harbor quintet did play some fine ball. Especially exciting were the Gaylord, Charlevoix and the tournament games. Pellston was the opponent in that tournament game, played at Petoskey. For three quarters, the game shaped up very well under the scrappy playing of the Rams, but the Harbor team just couldn't keep it up and in the last quarter, the Hornets made themselves felt in a 58 to 42 victory.

A good share of the team will remain in school next year and some new blood from the forth-coming Freshmen ought to brighten the aspect. Good luck to the ball squad of '53!

TRACK

FIRST ROW: Alton Radle, Arden Bawkey, Horace Bosma, Eugene Kruskie, Charles Taylor.

The hopes of the Harbor Springs thin-clads were high this year, although only three lettermen returned. The nucleus of Coach Kullman's squad was Ray Swiss, a dashman and shot-putter; Eugene Kruskie, a dashman and low hurdler; and Richard Wagenschutz, a pole vaulter and distance man. Frank Granstra, Jerry Hahn, Arden Bawkey and Martin King have also shown promise.
